7. Treasurer Jody Myers presented the list of current tax deed properties, tax parcel viewer, and the prior resolution. Jody noted it is around the same amount of tax deeds at this time every year. Discussion followed.
8. B&G Superintendent Paul Van Treeck shared his monthly report. Paul noted they switched the contract to be with Kimberly-Clark for paper towels, soap dispensers, etc. They will be replacing toilets at Service Center when building is closed on Presidents Day. Clerk of Court remodel was on budget around $4,000.
Paul reported that the flush valve broke in the jail, which does not have a shut off valve behind it, it is in the basement. Paul and team had it shut off within 8 minutes. Everything was contained in drains. Paul will teach jail staff how to shut off the line in case the emergency arises again.
Work order summary report showed the cases have increased due to jail calls.
Dispatch Center tour and Clerk of Court tour began at 12:40 p.m.
9. The agenda having been completed Committee Chairperson Lance Achterberg declared the meeting adjourned at 12:55 p.m.

Kiley Lloyd, County Clerk
